Contract may not be cancelled after being signed. Publisher does not assume responsibility for verbal or telephone orders. Publisher does not assume responsibility or supply proofs for artwork submitted "camera ready." Digital files submitted in PDF format for black-and-white ads must be converted to grayscale for proper reproduction. Advertisers using STLPrograms ad production services will reveive one proof per ad for changes submitted in writing at least two days prior to deadline. It is the responsibility of the advertiser to notify their STLPrograms account representative before deadline if changes are needed to the proof or if they have not received a proof. No credits or adjustments will be issued due to typos or format errors should the advertiser not respond to deadline. Credits given for Publisher errors will be in proportion to the portion of the ad that is incorrect.

Located on the tree-lined parkway of beautiful Flora Place at Tower Grove Avenue, the Historic Shaw Art Fair is one of the premier fine art and fine craft fairs in the St. Louis area. It is a professionally-juried Fair featuring 135 artists from around the country who work in a large variety of media and styles. This year's event will be held the weekend of October 3 & 4, and your business can be a participant by advertising in the official program.

This handy, colorful 5-1/2" x 8-1/2" sized booklet will be given to 10,000 fairgoers. The guide will be a great way to show off your business to this art-loving crowd. If you have a nearby restaurant or shop — or even a far-away art gallery, the guide will be a great way to reach this audience. In addition to the Fair, the Missouri Botanical Garden's Best of Missouri Market is held the same weekend, directly across Tower Grove Avenue.
